JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:
Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $1,300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Given that the defendant is not going to be imprisoned beyond the time necessary for the Bureau of Prisons to calculate his release and check for detainees, the Court further directs that the amount will be paid during the term of supervised release as directed by the Probation Office.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $450,704.45 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Internal Revenue Service	$450,704.45

During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment and as directed by the Probation Office.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Edgar Rene Nunez, is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 10 and Counts 13 and 14 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 4 months to be served concurrently, followed by a consecutive term of 24 months on Count 15 (TIME SERVED).

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on Counts 1 through 10 and Counts 13 and 14, and one year on Count 15, of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02.

USA vs. 1. Edgar Rene NunezDocket No.: CR 13-884-MWF

2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
4. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than his true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court grants the government's motion to dismiss all remaining counts of the Indictment.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
